New Delhi, the 17th August 1962

S.O. 2613.—In exercise of the powers conferred by section 53 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949 (10 of 1949), the Central Government, on the recommendation of the Reserve Bank of India, hereby declares that the provisions of section 10(1)(b)(i) (in so far as they relate to the employment of any person who has compounded with his creditors) and section 10(1)(c)(i) of the said Act shall not apply to the Commercial Bank of India Ltd., till the 31st December, 1962.

[No. F. 15(7)-BC/62.]

New Delhi, the 18th August 1962

S.O. 2614.—Whereas on the application of the Reserve Bank of India under sub-section (1) of section 45 of the Banking Companies Act, 1949 (Act 10 of 1949), the Central Government has made an order of moratorium in respect of the Unity Bank Ltd., Madras under sub-section (2) of the said section.

And whereas the Reserve Bank of India in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (4) of Section 45 of the said Act has prepared a scheme for the amalgamation of the Unity Bank Ltd. with the State Bank of India.

And whereas the Reserve Bank after having sent the said scheme in draft to the banks concerned in accordance with the provisions of sub-section (6) of the said section and after having considered the suggestions and objections received in regard to the said scheme has modified that scheme and forwarded it to the Central Government for sanction.

Now, therefore, in exercise of the powers conferred by sub-section (7) of section 45 of the said Act, the Central Government hereby sanctions the scheme on and subject to the terms and conditions hereinafter mentioned.

(1) The Unity Bank Ltd., shall be the transferor bank and the State Bank of India shall be the transferee bank.

(2) As from the date which the Central Government may specify for this purpose under sub-section (7) of section 45 of the said Act (hereinafter referred to as the prescribed date) all rights, powers, claims, demands, interests, authorities, privileges, benefits, assets and properties of the transferor bank, movable and immovable, including premises subject to all incidents of tenure and to the rents and other sums of money and covenants reserved by or contained in the leases or agreements under which they are held, all office furniture, loose equipment, plant, apparatus and appliances, books, papers, stocks of stationery, other stocks and stores, all investments in stocks, shares and securities, all bills receivable in hand and in transit, all cash in hand and on current or deposit account (including money at call or short notice) with banks, bullion, all book debts, mortgage debts and other debts with the benefit of securities, or any guarantee therefor, all other, if any, property rights and assets of every description including all rights of action and benefit of all guarantees in connection with the business of the transferor bank shall, subject to the other provisions of this scheme and transferred to, and become the properties and assets of, the transferee bank; and as from the prescribed date all the liabilities, duties and obligations of the transferor bank shall be and shall become the liabilities, duties and obligations of the transferee bank to the extent and in the manner provided hereinafter.

Without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing provisions, all contracts, deeds, bonds, agreements, powers of attorney, grants of legal representation and other instruments of whatever nature subsisting or having effect immediately before the prescribed date shall be effective to the extent and in the manner hereinafter provided against or in favour of the transferee bank and may be acted upon as if instead of the transferor bank the transferee bank had been a party thereto or as if they had been issued in favour of the transferee bank.

If on the prescribed date any suit, appeal or other legal proceeding of whatever nature by or against the transferor bank is pending, the same shall not abate, or be discontinued or be in any way prejudicially affected, but shall, subject to the other provisions of this scheme, be prosecuted and enforced by or against the transferee bank.

If the transferor bank was acting immediately before the prescribed date as a foreman in respect of any chit fund, the rights, duties and obligations in relation to the chit fund shall be regulated in accordance with the following provisions, namely,

- (i) the transferee bank shall become the foreman of the chit fund and shall continue to exercise all powers and to do all such acts and things as would have been exercised or done by the transferor bank, in so far as they are not inconsistent with this scheme;
- (ii) the funds, if any, of the chit fund lent to or deposited with the transferor bank, or otherwise due from that bank to the chit fund, shall be transferred to the transferee bank and the liabilities corresponding to such funds shall also be payable by the transferee bank in accordance with the other provisions of this scheme;
- (iii) if on the prescribed date the transferor bank in its capacity as the foreman of any chit fund has deposited any security for the due performance of its duties and obligations in relation to the said chit fund, the said security shall continue to be available for the purposes for which it was intended, but shall if and to the extent that it is subsequently released be transferred to and vest in the transferee bank provided that the said security or as the case may be the surplus, if any, after providing for the discharge of the duties or obligations in respect of the chit fund shall be valued and utilised for the purposes of this scheme.

If according to the laws of any country outside India the provisions of this scheme, by themselves, are not effective to transfer or vest any asset or liability situated in that country which forms part of the undertaking of the transferor bank to or in the transferee bank, the affairs of the transferor bank in relation to such asset or liability shall, on the prescribed date, stand entrusted to the chief executive officer for the time being of the transferee bank and the chief executive officer may exercise all powers and do all such acts and things as would have been exercised or done by the transferor bank for the purpose of effectively winding up its affairs. The chief executive officer shall take all such steps as may be required by the laws of any such country outside India for the purpose of effecting such transfer or vesting and in connection therewith the chief executive officer may, either himself or through any person authorised by him in this behalf, realise any asset or discharge any liability of the transferor bank and transfer the net proceeds thereof to the transferee bank.

(3) The books of the transferor bank shall be closed and balanced and balance sheets prepared in the first instance as at the close of business on the 24th March 1962 and thereafter as at the close of business on the day immediately preceding the prescribed date and the balance sheets shall be got audited and certified by a chartered accountant or a firm of chartered accountants approved or nominated by the Reserve Bank of India for the purpose.

A copy each of the balance sheets of the transferor bank prepared in accordance with the provisions of the foregoing paragraph, shall be filed by the transferor bank with the Registrar of Companies as soon as possible after it has been received and thereafter the transferor bank shall not be required to prepare balance sheets or profit and loss accounts, or to lay the same before its members or file copies thereof with the Registrar of Companies or to hold any annual general meeting for the purpose of considering the balance sheet and accounts or for any other purpose.

(4) I. The transferee bank shall in consultation with the transferor bank, value the property and assets and reckon the liabilities of the transferor bank in accordance with the following provisions, namely,

(a) Investments including Government securities shall be valued at the market rates prevailing on the day immediately preceding the prescribed date provided that the securities of the Central Government such as Post Office Certificates, Treasury Savings Deposit Certificates and any other securities or certificates issued under the small savings scheme of the Central Government shall be valued at their face value or the encashable value as on the said date, whichever is higher.

(b) Where the market value of any Government security such as the Zamindari abolition bonds or other similar security in respect of which the principal is payable in instalments is not ascertainable or is, for any reason, not considered as reflecting the fair value thereof or as otherwise appropriate, the security shall be valued at such an amount as is considered reasonable having regard to the instalments of principal and interest remaining to be paid, the period during which such instalments are payable, the yield of any security issued by the Government to which the security pertains and having the same or approximately the same maturity, and other relevant factors.

(c) Where the market value of any security, share, debenture, bond or other investment is not considered reasonable by reason of its having been affected by abnormal factors, the investment may be valued on the basis of its average market value over any reasonable period.

(d) Where the market value of any security, share, debenture, bond or other investment is not ascertainable, only such value, if any, shall be taken into account as is considered reasonable, having regard to the financial position of the issuing concern, the dividends paid by it during the preceding five years and other relevant factors.

(e) Premises and all other immovable properties and any assets acquired in satisfaction of claims shall be valued at their market value.

(f) Furniture and fixtures, stationery in stock and other assets, if any, shall be valued at the written down value as per books or the realisable value as may be considered reasonable.

(g) Advances including bills purchased and discounted book debts and sundry assets, will be scrutinised by the transferee bank and the securities, including guarantees, held as cover therefor examined and verified by the transferee bank. Thereafter, the advances, including portions thereof, will be classified into two categories, namely "Advances considered good and readily realisable" and "Advances considered not readily realisable and/or bad or doubtful of recovery".

II. Liabilities for purposes of this scheme shall include all contingent liabilities which the transferee bank may reasonably be expected or required to meet out of its own resources on or after the prescribed date.

III. Where the valuation of any asset cannot be determined on the prescribed date, it may, with the approval of the Reserve Bank of India be treated partly or wholly as an asset realisable at a later date.

In the event of any disagreement between the transferee bank and the transferor bank as regards the valuation of any asset or the classification of any advance or the determination of any liability, the matter shall be referred to the Reserve Bank of India, whose opinion shall be final, provided that until such an opinion is received, the valuation of the item or portion thereof by the transferee bank shall provisionally be adopted for the purpose of this scheme.

It shall be competent for the Reserve Bank in the event of its becoming necessary to do so, to obtain such technical advice as it may consider to be appropriate in connection with the valuation of any such item of asset or determination of any such item of liability, and the cost of obtaining such advice shall be payable in full out of the assets of the transferor bank.

The valuation of the assets and the determination of the liabilities in accordance with the foregoing provisions shall be binding on both the banks and the members and creditors thereof.

(5) In consideration of the transfer of the property and the assets of the transferor bank to the transferee bank the transferee bank shall discharge the liabilities of the transferor bank to the extent mentioned in this and the succeeding paragraphs.

(a) The outside liabilities other than deposits as on the prescribed date shall be paid or provided for in full.

(b) In respect of every savings bank account or current account or any other deposit including a fixed deposit, cash certificate, monthly deposit, deposit payable at call or short notice or any other deposit by whatever name called with the transferor bank and every other account not covered by clause (a), including interest to the extent payable under this scheme, the transferee bank shall open with itself on the prescribed date a corresponding and similar account in the name of the respective holder(s) thereof crediting thereto the pro rata share available in respect of each of the accounts out of the assets referred to in paragraph (4) as valued for the purposes of this scheme, excluding the advances considered not readily realisable and/or bad or doubtful of recovery and any asset or portion of an asset not valued on the prescribed date, after deducting therefrom the amount needed for the payments or provisions mentioned at clause (a) above.

Explanation: The term 'pro rata' occurring in this paragraph and elsewhere in this scheme shall mean 'in proportion to the respective amounts remaining due at the time of the payment or distribution'.

(c) After the credits referred to in clause (b) above have been afforded, the transferee bank shall, with the least possible delay but in any case not later than three months from the prescribed date, furnish to the Deposit Insurance Corporation established under the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 (hereinafter referred to as the Corporation), a list complying in all respects with the requirements of sub-section (1) of section 18 of that Act and thereafter whenever amounts referred to in sub-section (2) of section 18 of that Act are received from the Corporation, the transferee bank shall credit each of the accounts referred to in clause (b) above, within seven days from the date or dates on which the amounts are received, to the extent of the sums due to that account in accordance with sub-section (2) of section 18 of that Act:

Provided that—

- (a) if any account referred to in clause (b) has been closed or has matured for payment at the time when any amount for credit to that account is received from the Corporation, the payment to the person entitled to the said amount shall be made by the transferee bank in cash;
- (b) in case the person entitled to any amount referred to in clause (b) cannot be found or is not readily traceable, provision for the amount due to such person shall be made and accounted for separately on the books of the Corporation itself and it shall not be necessary for the Corporation to pay the amounts to the transferee bank unless the person entitled to the amount is found or traced and the Corporation has decided to make the payment in respect of that person through the transferee bank.
- (d) On the prescribed date, the entire amount of the paid-up capital and reserves of the transferor bank shall be treated as provision for bad and doubtful debts and depreciation in other assets of the transferor bank and the rights of the members of the transferor bank shall, in relation to the transferee bank, be as provided for in paragraph (6) below.

(6) In respect of

- (a) every account mentioned in clause (b) of the preceding paragraph, the balance in the account, if any, remaining uncredited in terms of that clause and clause (c) and
- (b) every share in the transferor bank, the amount which was treated as paid-up towards share capital by or on behalf of each shareholder immediately before the prescribed date shall be treated as a collection account and shall be entered as such on the books of the transferee bank and payments against the account shall be made in the following manner, namely,

(i) the transferee bank shall, in respect of the advances, bills purchased and discounted, books debts and sundry debts and other assets, which are classified as "Advances considered not readily realisable and/or bad or doubtful of recovery", or which are or may be realisable wholly or partly after the prescribed date in terms of paragraph (4) above, take all available steps having regard to the circumstances of each case to demand and enforce payment, provided, however, that if the amount of the debt exceeds Rs. 10,000, the transferee bank shall not except with the approval of the Reserve Bank of India

- (a) enter into a compromise or arrangement with the debtor or any other person;
- (b) sell or otherwise dispose of any securities transferred to it;

(ii) the transferee bank shall in addition take all available steps having regard to the circumstances of each case to demand and enforce the payment of the amounts, if any, awarded as damages by the High Court against any promoter, director, manager or other officer of the transferor bank under section 45L of the Banking Companies Act read with section 45H thereof and also with section 543 of the Companies Act, 1956.

(iii) the transferee bank may, out of the realisations effected by it on account of the items mentioned in clauses (i) and (ii) above, make payment or provision in respect of any contingent liability to the extent that the provision made therefor under paragraph 5(a) proves to be inadequate, as also, with the prior approval of the Reserve Bank, in respect of any liability whether contingent or absolute which was not assessed in terms of paragraph (4) above and has arisen or been discovered on or after the prescribed date:

(iv) the transferee bank shall, out of the realisations effected by it on account of the items mentioned in clauses (i) and (ii) above after deducting therefrom the expenditure incurred for the purpose and the amount appropriated therefrom in terms of clause (iii) above, or out of the balance, if any, which may be available from out of the contingent liabilities as reckoned for the purposes of this scheme after the extent of such liabilities has finally been ascertained;

(a) pay to the Corporation the amount received by the transferee bank from the Corporation under sub-section (2) of section 18 of the Deposit Insurance Corporation Act, 1961 and the amount, if any, provided for by the Corporation; and

(b) pay, in the case of depositors in respect of whom no amounts have been received by the transferee bank from the Corporation, the amounts due in respect of the collection accounts, and in the case of depositors in respect of whom any amounts have been received by the transferee bank from the Corporation or have been provided for by the Corporation the balance if any due to them in their collection accounts after the amounts due from the said accounts to the Corporation in respect of the payment made or provided for by the Corporation have first been paid in accordance with the provisions of sub-clause (a) above.

Provided that the amount due to the Corporation shall, if it becomes necessary so to do, be provided for on the books of the transferee bank and be paid to the Corporation in the manner specified in clause (b) of regulation 22 of the Deposit Insurance Corporation General Regulations, 1961.

Provided further that the transferee bank shall make the payments referred to in clause (b) above,

(i) if the corresponding or similar account mentioned in clause (b) of paragraph (5) has not been closed or has not matured for payment, by credit to that account, and

(ii) if the said account has been closed or has matured for payment, in cash,

(v) The amounts due to the Corporation in terms of sub-clause (a) of clause (iv) above and the amounts due to the collection accounts of the depositors in terms of sub-clause (b) of that clause shall rank equally among themselves, and if they cannot be paid in full shall abate in equal proportions.

(vi) After the payments referred to in clause (iv) of this paragraph have been made or provided for in full, the transferee bank shall, out of the balance of the amounts referred to in clause (iv) which may be available to it, make payments pro rata towards the amounts, if any, due to the accounts of the former shareholders of the transferor bank.

Provided that the transferee bank shall give to any person to whom any payment may be due under this clause such reasonable notice, not exceeding three months and not being less than one month as it may consider appropriate of the payment being due, and

(a) if during the period of this notice a request has not been received in writing for the payment of the amount due in each and if the amount of the payment due is also not less than the highest closing price of an ordinary share in the transferee bank as quoted on any recognised stock exchange on or immediately before the date on which the notice is issued, or where the ordinary share of the transferee bank is not quoted on any recognised stock exchange the price of the share as determined by the Reserve Bank, the transferee bank shall allot to the payee a share or shares in the transferee bank to the extent possible and disburse in cash the balance, if any, of the amount which may be due; and

- (b) if the conditions mentioned in sub-clause (a) above are not fulfilled the transferee bank shall disburse the amount in cash.

Provided further that

- (a) the allotment of the shares or the payments aforesaid shall in each case be made before the end of six months from the date on which notice of the payment falling due is deemed to have been served in accordance with the provisions of this scheme; and
- (b) the share capital of the transferee bank shall be deemed to have been increased, and notwithstanding the provisions of any enactment, regulation or other instrument, it shall also be lawful for the transferee bank to issue the shares, in the manner and to the extent specified for the purposes of this scheme.

(vii) the amounts due to the collection accounts referred to in this paragraph shall be deemed to be a liability of the transferee bank only to the extent provided for in this scheme.

(viii) on the expiry of twelve years from the prescribed date or such earlier period as the Central Government after consulting the Reserve Bank of India may specify for this purpose, any item referred to in clause (i) of this paragraph which may not have been realised by that date shall be valued by the transferee bank in consultation with the Reserve Bank and the transferee bank shall distribute any amount or amounts determined in the light of that valuation after deducting therefrom first any sum necessary for meeting the liabilities referred to in clause (iii) of this paragraph which may remain unsatisfied as on that date in the order and the manner provided in clauses (iv), (v) and (vi) above.

(7) Notwithstanding anything contained in the foregoing paragraphs, the allotment of shares under this scheme shall not be made in such a manner that the Reserve Bank of India holds at any time less than fifty-five per cent of the issued capital of the transferee bank and if it becomes necessary so to do for securing the above, the number of shares issued to the Reserve Bank shall be increased to such extent as may be necessary in order to increase the total number of shares issued to the Reserve Bank of India to fifty-five per cent as aforesaid.

(8) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in any contract, express or implied, no interest shall accrue on account of a deposit or other liability in any account mentioned in paragraphs (5) and (6) after the date of the moratorium and interest shall be paid only in respect of the new accounts opened with the transferee bank in terms of paragraph (5) and credited in accordance with the provisions of that or the next succeeding paragraph and only at such rates as the transferee bank may allow.

(9) No depositor or other creditor of the transferor bank shall be entitled to make any demand against the transferor bank or the transferee bank in respect of any liability of the transferor bank to him except to the extent prescribed by this scheme.

(10) No suit or other legal proceedings shall lie against the Central Government, the Reserve Bank of India or the transferee or the transferor banks for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done in pursuance of this scheme.

(11) All the employees of the transferor bank other than those specified in the schedule referred to in the succeeding paragraph shall continue in service and be deemed to have been appointed by the transferee bank at the same remuneration and on the same terms and conditions of service as were applicable to such employees immediately before the 25th March 1962.

Provided that the employees of the transferor bank who have, by notice in writing given to the transferor or the transferee bank at any time before the expiry of one month next following the date on which this scheme has been sanctioned by the Central Government, intimated their intention of not becoming employees of the transferee bank, shall be entitled to the payment of such compensation, if any, under the provisions of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 and such pension, gratuity, provident fund and other retirement benefits as may be ordinarily admissible under the rules or authorisations of the transferor bank immediately before the 25th March 1962.

Provided further that the transferee bank shall in respect of the employees of the transferor bank who are deemed to have been appointed as employees of the transferee bank be deemed also to have taken over liability for the payment of retrenchment compensation in the event of their being retrenched while in the service of the transferee bank on the basis that their service has been continuous and has not been interrupted by their transfer to the transferee bank.

(12) The persons specified in the schedule annexed to this scheme shall on the prescribed date cease to be the employees of the transferor bank and notwithstanding anything contained in any law for the time being in force or any agreement or contract the persons so specified shall be entitled to and only to such pension, gratuity, provident fund and other retirement benefits as may be ordinarily admissible to them under the rules or authorisations of the transferor bank immediately before the 25th March 1962.

Provided that the compensation if any for the loss of employment, so far as it relates to the unexpired portion of any contract of service, shall be such and only such as may be determined by the Reserve Bank (whose determination in this respect shall be final and binding).

Provided further that nothing herein shall be deemed to prevent the transferee bank from re-employing any person whose name has been specified in the schedule annexed to this scheme in such capacity and on such terms and conditions as the transferee bank may deem fit.

(13) The transferee bank shall, on the expiry of a period not longer than three years from the date on which this scheme is sanctioned pay or grant to the employees of the transferor bank the same remuneration and the same terms and conditions of service as are applicable to the employees of corresponding rank or status of the transferee bank subject to the qualifications and experience of the said employees of the transferor bank being the same as or equivalent to those of such other employees of the transferee bank.

Provided that if any doubt or difference arises as to whether the qualifications or experience of any of the said employees are the same as or equivalent to the qualifications and experience of the other employees of corresponding rank or status of the transferee bank or as to the procedure or principles to be adopted for the fixation of the pay of the employees in the scales of pay of the transferee bank, the doubt or difference shall be referred to the Reserve Bank of India whose decision thereon shall be final.

(14) The trustees or administrators of any provident fund constituted for the employees of the transferor bank or as the case may be the transferor bank shall on or as soon as possible after the prescribed date transfer to the trustees of the employees provident fund constituted for the transferee bank, or otherwise as the transferee bank may direct, all the monies and investments held in trust for the benefit of the employees of the transferor bank.

Provided, however, that such latter trustees shall not be liable for any deficiency in the value of investments, or in respect of any act, neglect, or default done before the prescribed date.

(15) The transferee bank shall submit to the Reserve Bank of India such statements and information as may be required by the Reserve Bank of India from time to time regarding the implementation of this scheme.

(16) Any notice or other communication required to be given by the transferee bank shall be considered to be duly given, if addressed and sent by pre-paid ordinary post to the addressee at the address registered in the books of the transferor bank, until a new address is registered in the books of the transferee bank, and such notice shall be deemed to be served on the expiry of forty-eight hours after it has been posted. Any notice or communication which is of general interest shall be advertised in addition in one or more daily newspapers which may be in circulation at the places where the transferor bank was transacting its business.

(17) If any doubt arises in interpreting any of the provisions of this scheme, the matter shall be referred to the Reserve Bank of India and its opinion shall be conclusive and binding on both the transferee and transferor banks, and also on all the members, depositors and other creditors and employees of each of those banks and on any other person having any rights or liability in relation to any of those banks.

(18) If any difficulty arises in giving effect to the provisions of this scheme, the Central Government may issue to the transferor and the transferee banks or to either of them such directions not inconsistent with this scheme as may appear to the Central Government, after consulting the Reserve Bank of India, to be necessary or appropriate for the purpose of removing the difficulty.

Re: Complaint under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (Act XIV of 1947).

PRESENT:

Shri Salim M. Merchant, Presiding Officer.

For the Applicant.—Shri Lalit Barman.

For the Opposite Party.—Shri S. S. Mukherjee, Advocate with Shri M. R. Banerjee, Agent of the Ashakuty/Phularitand Colliery.

STATE:—Bihar.

INDUSTRY:—Coal Mining.

Dated: Bombay (Camp), 7th August 1962.

AWARD

This application, purporting to be under section 33A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, was filed on 23rd December, 1960 and is directed against the order of discharge from service dated 4th September 1960 passed by the opposite party against the applicant. The applicant, Shri Jadu Singh, was employed as a loading and depot chaprasi in the Ashakuty/Phularitand Colliery and he claims that he had put in 16/17 years' service. The company's notice of 4th September 1960, (Annexure I to the application), by which the applicant was dismissed from service, stated that in spite of repeated charge-sheets and warning letters the applicant did not improve and that due to his negligence the company had suffered huge losses by way of under charges, overloading charges, demurrages and bad loading, and that, therefore, the company had lost confidence in him. Considering all this he was given 30 days' notice and informed that his services would not be required from 5th October 1960. The applicant in his complaint has stated that the allegations in this notice were false and without foundation as the applicant was in no way responsible for any loss by way of under-charges, overcharges, demurrages and bad loading as he was a chaprasi and there was no negligence of any kind in his normal duties; that there was no valid ground for the opposite party losing confidence in him and that the management's plea was mala fide and made out of bad faith; that the applicant had been dismissed because the company had adopted the policy of getting rid of its old employees; that the action of the management was influenced by extraneous considerations; that none of the charges levelled against the applicant had been substantiated at an independent enquiry and, for this reason also the termination of his service was illegal and unjustified and, he, therefore claimed to be reinstated in service with full back wages.

2. The application has been filed on the footing that the applicant was a workman concerned in the industrial dispute in Reference No. 27 of 1960 and his dismissal was illegal as it was in violation of the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, inasmuch as the opposite party had not either taken the permission or approval to his dismissal from this Tribunal as required by section 33, his dismissal having taken place during the pendency of the proceedings of Reference No. 27 of 1960 before this Tribunal.

3. The opposite party in its written statement in reply dated 27th March 1961 has raised certain legal objection against the maintainability of the complaint.

4. It has firstly urged that this application is not maintainable as Reference No. 27 of 1960 had not arisen out of any industrial dispute but was a reference made by Government under section 36A of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (hereinafter referred to as the Act) for removal of doubts and difficulties felt by the Central Government as to what should be the proper categorisation under the Majumdar Award of a category of workmen known as "traffics". This contention had earlier come in for consideration by this Tribunal—both by the late Shri Palit and myself, and we both held that the pendency of proceedings in Reference No. 27 of 1960 were such proceedings as were contemplated by section 33 of the Act and that, therefore, the dismissal of a workman concerned in the proceedings under a reference under section 36A during the pendency of those proceedings also required the permission or approval of the Tribunal, under section 33A of the Act. For the same reasons as stated by me in my Award, dated 20th October, 1961, in Application No. 99 of 1960, I reject the first contention of the management.

5. It is, however, next urged that even assuming that the proceedings in Reference No. 27 of 1960 were such proceedings as are contemplated by section 33 of the Act, this application was not maintainable, as the opposite party was not a workman concerned in Reference No. 27 of 1960, and, therefore, there has been no violation of Section 33 of the Act,—although out of abundant caution the opposite party had, in fact, filed an application under section 33(2)(b) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, for the approval of the Tribunal to its action in dismissing the opposite party, being application No. 29 of 1960, which was disposed of by this Tribunal on the ground that it had become functus officio to hear that application on the conclusion of the pendency of Reference No. 27 of 1960 on the expiry of 30 days after publication of the decision in Reference No. 27 of 1960.

6. Shri S. S. Mukherjee, the learned Advocate for the opposite party, in support of this legal contention has relied upon the judgment of the Division Bench of the Patna High Court in the case of Khagesh Sarkar and Others—Petitioners v/s Tatanagar Foundry Co. Ltd., Jamshedpur and others, Respondents [1961 A.I.R. (Patna) p. 420], where their Lordships (Shri V. Ramaswami C. J. and R. K. Choudhury J.) have laid down that the question whether a workman is concerned in a dispute under adjudication is a mixed question of law and fact, and it is not possible to lay down any specific and particular test or rule of law or formula for determining whether a particular workman is concerned in a dispute within the meaning of section 33 of the Act or not. The question in each case would have to be determined on the particular facts of that case. Their Lordships then proceeded to observe:—

"The principles applicable to come to a decision in this respect, however, are in my opinion to find out the nature of the dispute under adjudication, the effect of its decision on the rest of the workmen and the nature of the representation of workmen in the dispute."

Their Lordships further held that the dispute must be such in which a principle applicable to the workman in general was involved.

7. I have, therefore, to see whether on these principles it can be held that the complainant was workman concerned in Reference No. 27 of 1960.

8. Reference No. 27 of 1960, as I have stated earlier, was a reference made by the Government under section 36A of the Act which provides as follows:—

36A (1) "If in the opinion of the Central Government any difficulty or doubt arises as to the interpretation of any provision of any award or settlement it may refer the question to such Labour Court, Tribunal or National Tribunal as it may think fit.

(2) The Labour Court, Tribunal, National Tribunal to which such question is referred shall after giving the parties an opportunity of being heard decide such question and its decision shall be final and binding on all such parties."

Now, the question over which doubt and difficulty had arisen was the question as to the proper categorisation, of a category of employees known as "Traffics", under the directions of the Award of the "All India Industrial Tribunal" (Colliery Disputes), (popularly known after its Chairman as the Majumdar Award), as modified by the decision of the Labour Appellate Tribunal, and this was the question referred by Government to the Industrial Tribunal, Dhanbad, under section 36A of the Act.

8. It is admitted that there were no employees of the category of "traffics" in this colliery, though this colliery and its employees were parties to the industry-wise dispute covered by the Majumdar Award and also under Reference No. 27 of 1960. The contention urged by Shri S. S. Mukherjee, the learned Advocate for the opposite party, is that the applicant Jadu Singh cannot be legally considered to be a workman concerned in Reference No. 27 of 1960, under the provisions of section 33 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, as he cannot be considered to be concerned in the question involved in Reference No. 27 of 1960 as by its very nature that dispute was confined to a category of employees called 'Traffics', of which category in fact there were no employees in this colliery. Shri Mukherjee has next argued that there would be no effect adverse or otherwise on the applicant—Jadu Singh—who was a loading and depot chaprasi by the determination of the proper category for 'Traffics', particularly when there was no workman of that category in this colliery and that even the nature of the representation of the workmen of this colliery in Reference No. 27 of 1960 did not justify treating the applicant as being a workman concerned in Reference No. 27 of 1960.

9. I am satisfied that the applicant Jadu Singh cannot be considered to be a workman concerned in Reference No. 27 of 1960, as he does not fulfil any of the tests of the principles laid down by their Lordships of the Patna High Court in the case of the Tata Nagar Foundry (1961 A.I.R. Patna p. 420). I am satisfied that neither by the nature of the dispute in Reference No. 27 of 1960, nor the effect of its decision on the rest of the workmen nor the nature of the representation of the workmen in Reference No. 27 of 1960, can it be said that Jadu Singh was a workman concerned in that reference under the provisions of section 33 of the Act. In my opinion, the nature of the dispute under Reference No. 27 of 1960, also was not such as would ordinarily affect the interest of the rest of the workmen or in which any principle applicable to the workmen in general was involved.

10. I, therefore, hold that Jadu Singh was not a workman concerned in reference No. 27 of 1960 and there has, therefore, been no violation of section 33 of the Act by the opposite party in terminating his services during the pendency of that reference.

11. In the result, it must be held that this complaint is not maintainable and as such it must stand dismissed.

12. I may, however, make it clear that I must not be deemed to have expressed any opinion on the merits of the complaint regarding the legality or justification of the dismissal of the applicant from service.

No order as to costs.

Presiding Officer,
Central Government Industrial Tribunal, Dhanbad.
[No. 8/32/62-LRII.]

S.O. 2660.—In pursuance of section 17 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 (14 of 1947), the Central Government hereby publishes the following award of the Industrial Tribunal, Delhi, in the industrial dispute between the employers in relation to M/s. Duduwala and Co., Bhilwara and their workmen.

BEFORE THE CENTRAL GOVT. INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL, DELHI, CAMP AJMER

PRESENT

Shri P. D. Vyas, Central Govt. Industrial Tribunal, Delhi, Camp Ajmer.

1st August, 1962.

REFERENCE I.D. No. 189 of 1961

BETWEEN:

The employers in relation to M/s. Duduwala and Company, Bhilwara,

AND

Their workmen, as represented by the Khan Mazdoor Congress, Bhilwara.

No appearance on either side.

AWARD

In exercise of the powers conferred by clause (d) of sub-section (1) of section 10 of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947, the Central Government referred an industrial dispute existing between M/s. Duduwala & Company, Bhilwara and their workmen, for adjudication to the Industrial Tribunal, Delhi by order No. S.O. 23/29/60-LRII dated the 29th May, 1961. The dispute relates to the matter specified in the Schedule annexed to the order.

SCHEDULE

Whether the workmen employed at the mines of Duduwala and Company, Bhilwara, are entitled to bonus for the years 1956-57, 1957-58 and 1958-59 (Diwali to Diwali) and, if so, at what rate?

2. On behalf of the workmen the Secretary, Khan Mazdoor Congress, Bhilwara has filed the statement of claim. On behalf of the management in answer to the notice issued for filing the written statement it was stated that M/s. Duduwala & Company is under the management of Receivers appointed by the High Court of West Bengal, Calcutta and the account books of the Company are lying at Calcutta for auditing and for the preparation of Balance-Sheets and Profit and Loss Accounts. On these grounds the management asked for a long adjournment to file its written statement and further extension was given from time to time for this purpose. Ultimately the written-statement dated 29-11-1961 was received from the joint Receivers of the Company. The Receivers contended inter alia that the years under reference are the years of losses and moreover the reference is bad as no such party as M/s. Duduwala & Company existed at the date of reference, nor does it exist since thereafter. It was a partnership firm and one of the partners having died on 17-1-1957, the firm was dissolved and in the course of the subsequent litigation between the heirs of the deceased partner and the surviving partner the High Court of Judicature of West Bengal at Calcutta appointed an Official Receiver who continued upto 30-9-1960 whereafter joint Receivers were appointed by the same High Court. These joint Receivers are holding the assets of the dissolved firm and the reference could not be made against the dissolved firm. Moreover no such proceedings could commence or continue against the Receivers without the prior sanction of the High Court of Judicature of West Bengal and on such sanction only the joint Receivers could be made the parties to the proceedings.

3. It appears from the papers filed along with the written statement that the firm was dissolved long before the date of the instant reference and it is doubtful if the reference could be made as it stands as against a firm which was dissolved and no longer existing. Moreover on the appointment of the Receivers in order to commence or continue any proceedings against them, previous sanction of the Calcutta High Court will be necessary. In this connection the Secretary of the Khan Mazdoor Congress who represented the workmen filed the statement dated 15-1-62 saying that he was going to take up the matter before the Calcutta High Court and he may be given some time for this purpose. Since thereafter though several notices were issued to him, there has been no response from the Union's side as to whether any orders were obtained from the Calcutta High Court and whether they are taking any steps to implead the joint Receivers as parties to the reference. The last such notice to the workmen as represented by the Khan Mazdoor Congress, Bhilwara was made returnable on 4-7-1962 in order to inform this Tribunal as to what had happened in the Calcutta High Court and how the matter was to be further proceeded with. There was however no appearance on behalf of the workmen on that date. To give them one more chance and the parties being of Bhilwara which is near Ajmer, we fixed up the matter at Ajmer on 1-8-1962 as about that time some of the Rajasthan matters were to be heard at Ajmer. On this date, namely 1-8-1962, also there has been no appearance on behalf of the workmen. This indicates that the representatives of the workmen are not serious enough to proceed with the matter with due diligence and care and especially when we find that at the date of the reference the firm was already dissolved and no proceeding could commence or continue against the Receivers appointed without the previous sanction of the Calcutta High Court, it is no use to keep this old reference pending. In the circumstances of the case the reference stands disposed of for want of further prosecution, the representatives of the workmen having failed in spite of several notices to show whether the reference could lie and whether and how it could proceed further looking to the fact of the dissolution of the firm and the appointment of the Receivers.
